

Job Posting – Independent Fiscal Office

The IFO is accepting applications for employment. Qualified applicants should have a bachelor's degree in a quantitative field such as economics, finance, accounting, statistics, or mathematics. Strong writing skills are also required, as well as proficiency with Microsoft Office products. Starting salary is commensurate with education and work experience and may range from $55,000 to $80,000 depending on those criteria. Positions include full health and pension benefits, and work remotely 3 days per week (parking included for workdays in office). Interested applicants can submit resumes (cover letter not required) to Robyn Toth at rtoth@ifo.state.pa.us and use "Application" in the subject line. Qualified applicants will be asked to come into the office for an in-person interview and complete a brief written assessment that demonstrates critical thinking and writing skills.
